“You ask me to “pick up the toy” and I can,
but I cry when you or dad leaves”

Sometimes I can STAND ALONE

All on my own
I can sit up

I understand more and more each day

I can pull up to stand, and start “cruising”

When I’m feeling brave I TAKE STEPS without holding on

Did you cry when I said “mama” and “dada” and “uh-oh”?

Are you proud I can shake my head “no” &
wave “bye-bye”

Talk to me so I can try and say those words

My noises start to sound more like speech
