MONTH 18

“Look mom, no hands I can walk on my own”

Look, I can pull this toy
WHILE WALKING

With help I can undress myself

Steps are fun but watch ME RUN

Hand over the water,
I can drink from a cup

Tasty – I can now eat with a spoon

I like to share and hand things to you for playtime

Uh oh, I'm having temper tantrums

Watch out, I may be afraid of strangers

But I'll still show affection to familiar people

Let's play pretend and feed dolly

I can say a few single words

Now I shake my head when I say "no"

I'm getting clingy to you in new situations

Look over there, I point to interesting things

I'm an explorer but still want my parents close by
